UNION BANK & TRUST

Union Bank & Trust Company is the only union owned and operated bank in the Upper Midwest. We are committed to serving long-term needs; supporting the economic well-being of working people, small businesses, individuals and associations which make up our neighborhoods. We are a community-oriented bank that is involved in our surrounding neighborhoods. The people who work at Union Bank & Trust Company are here to respond to your needs. This pledge goes beyond friendly, personal service to include an active involvement in problem solving and opportunity building for our customers. We will always treat you with dignity and respect. In this way, we will provide you with the best service in all aspects of your banking relationship. Our logo is a union of four U's rotated from a single point of origin. This symbolizes the connection of many different unions, united for a common cause. The revolution of the letter, always turning outward, symbolizes the mission of Union Bank & Trust Company to reach out to working people, families and the community.
